From Fr. Glen's DESK

This Sunday is Christ the King and the last Sunday of the liturgical year. On this feast we remember that we will all meet Jesus Christ the firstborn from the dead. Jesus is our brother by virtue of being born of Mary, and our Lord and God by virtue of in being with the Father.

This being the last Sunday of the church year, it functions as a reminder that none of us can stay in this body in this world forever. We all have the breath of God, the soul within us. The soul being of God, who is eternal, is immortal; and once brought into being, our soul cannot die.

Thus, we will all meet Jesus our brother and Lord when we die in the body. Our great hope is that Jesus is our brother being born among us and willing to die for us on the cross. He is called our shepherd in the gospel reading. He desires to save us to have us with Him forever in heavenly glory. Faith is our response to this desire of His. This feast calls us to look to our faith and see if it is a strong response to His call to follow Him. And it is a call to pray for those who have not come to faith or fallen from it to return to faith in Jesus Christ our King, Lord and Savior.

This week we have the Thanksgiving holiday on Thursday. We will have mass at SS. Peter and Paul at 9:00AM that morning. If you are not traveling, plan to come and give thanks for all our many blessings.

Next Saturday, November 28th, SS. Peter and Paul will have its Christkindlmarkt Christmas market festival from 12 noon until 8:00 PM. Come and enjoy a magical experience to prepare for the coming celebration of Jesus' birth at Christmas.

This weekend St. Thomas has it's Turkey Bingo from noon until 3:00PM. This is a blast and I encourage you all to come and take part.

A MAINTENANCE MINUTE "ACCESS FOR ALL" | UPDATE

Our Church heating unit went down last Friday. The unit was installed in 2013. The following pictures show how bad it was. The heat tubes were rusted through. In the one picture, you can see that the end 2 holes were completely gone!

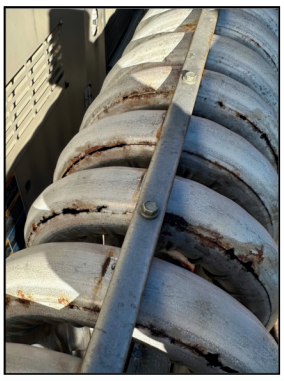
It was decided to repair basically the whole insides of it for $10-12,000 instead of replacing it for $30-40,000. It also would have taken a lot longer to replace it, and with winter approaching, it wasn't a good option. If it smells a little funny in Church after this, it's just burning off any loose dust or oil coating that the new parts came with.

We are also servicing the Ice Melt system for the front steps in preparation for winter. The School roof top units only needed a little "minor repair".

The four main boilers in the school basement are running great. I'm only using two of them and switching them out with the other two every month to try and extend their life as well. No need to run four boilers at once, until it gets dangerously cold outside. Then I turn all four boilers on so no pipes freeze.

If you ever have any questions on anything, Maintenance-related, I'm always available to answer them, or find the answers for you.

Gary



OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I remember middle school baseball tryouts. A friend of mine, Robert, was trying to make the team to please his father, but his heart wasn't in it. He was lackadaisical and unenergetic. When the final cut-list was announced, and his name wasn't on it, he was relieved. He realized the coach was not insulting him but essentially telling him, "Bobby, this only works if you actually want to play ball." I was saddened he'd miss out on the fun, but I knew it was best. Putting Robert onto the team would not have been kindness. It would have made him miserable.

Jesus speaks to us today about his identity as our King and Judge. He separates those who inherit the kingdom from those who do not. The King explains, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). His judgment hinges on willingness to participate in love. Heaven is not a prize imposed at the end of life. It is a life freely chosen and engaged. Hell is not a destination prepared for human beings, but a terrible and sad acknowledgment of an opting out which God never intends for us.

Jesus' role as judge proclaims to us: "Heaven only works if you actually want to love." How do we know if we want it? How we serve the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned, and the forgotten. These acts of mercy are not arbitrary tests. They are the very shape of divine life. There is no better game to play than this. We ought to begin playing it right now. The King will come to judge us.

— Father John Muir

NEWS & EVENTS

EXPLANATION OF OUR FUNERAL COMMITTEES

Did you know all parishioners are automatically placed on a Funeral Committee when they join the parish?

One of the greatest acts of mercy we offer as a parish family is comforting those who mourn. Because we are all part of this community, every registered member of our parish is automatically a member of our Funeral Luncheon Committee.

When a funeral is scheduled, committee chairs reach out on a rotating basis to ask for help with setting up, serving and cleaning up. We kindly ask that when you receive a call, you lend a hand if your schedule allows. The generosity of your time provides a warm, welcoming space for grieving families to gather and share memories.

Thank you for helping us care for one another in times of loss. If you have any questions or need to update your contact information so we can reach you, please contact Lynn in the parish office at 763-479-3986.

Ss. Peter & Paul seeks a warm, creative, and organized Communication and Engagement Coordinator to share the life of our faith community with clarity and care.

This 30-hour per week position plays an important role in keeping parishioners informed, connected, and encouraged to participate in parish life. They will oversee parish communications across print and digital platforms, including the weekly bulletin, website, flyers, brochures, posters, and parish coorespondence to different groups within the community.

This person will work closely with the pastor, parish staff, and ministry leaders to ensure timely, accurate, and welcoming communication that reflects our Catholic parish's mission and spirit.

To apply, please send a resume to our Parish Administrator, Todd Ziesmer, at tziesmer@saintsppta.org.
