DESK

This is the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our reading from St. Matthew's gospel has the account of Jesus at Caesaria Phillipi at the headwaters of the Jordan River in which He was baptized by John the Baptist.

Jesus asks the apostles who do people say that He is. Other apostles mention generally who the people think that Jesus is; but when pressed by Jesus about who they think He is, Peter famously says that He is the Christ (Messiah), the Son of the Living God. Later events prove that Peter did not fully understand what that meant, but he was coming to understand more of who Jesus must be compared to the prophets of old.

Jesus then momentarily states that He intends to build a church, a word coming from the Greek language which means assembly or gathering. He also says He will build it on Peter and that the jaws of the netherworld (hell) will not prevail against it.

Jesus is declaring that He has come to build a church, it will be His church, and hell will not lead it astray. He says that He will build it on Peter. The Catholic Church takes its understanding of itself as the one Church of Jesus Christ founded intentionally by Jesus on Peter from this passage along with others. This is the clearest charter of her role as the flock of Christ lead in this world after Jesus' ascension into heaven, by Peter and his successors, the popes. The flock of Christ in this world will never be left without a shepherd to guide it, and Jesus has declared this to be so in this passage.

- Our accessibility project is moving along rapidly toward completion. We still need additional support from the congregation to meet our goal of minimizing withdrawals from savings, as we have a few more projects to complete to update and restore our church fully.
- Maintenance work includes making repairs to the church floor, restoring the pews, and replacing the kneelers. Then completing the new altars and pulpit will wrap up the updating of our church to move ahead into a bright future serving Jesus Christ amidst His people in this rapidly changing world!

PART-TIME CUSTODIAN NEEDED

Our parish is seeking a reliable part-time custodian for 10-15 hours per week. Duties include general cleaning of the church and school to help keep our facilities welcoming and well cared for. Gary will continue managing campus maintenance and general cleaning, where needed.

"ACCESS FOR ALL" | UPDATE

This week we will be seeing some more visual construction going on. They are putting in the door frame from the Church into the new addition. They have most of the new addition walls painted.

- The elevator arrived on Monday, and they are beginning to install it. That is about a 2-week process.
- They have started to tile the bathrooms, starting with the floors.
- The contractors will begin laying the exterior blocks and brick work.

Thank you to everyone for your generous contributions.

Gary

MISSION THANK YOU!

A couple of weeks ago, we welcomed Fr. Mathai from the Congregation of the Sons of the Immaculate Conception who spoke about their mission to provide safety, education, healthcare, and daily care to children in great need in India. Through your generosity, we were able to give him a check for $2,349.00. Thank you for your kindness and support!

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

ONLY PETER HAS THE ANSWER

"What do you think of the Pope?"

After the election of Pope Leo XIV in 2025, all my non-Catholic friends texted me this question. The result of the papal conclave was dominating the news cycle, and everyone was curious about this man who would now be so prominent on the world stage, making me temporarily popular with people who apparently need more (and better) Catholics in their lives.

In today's Gospel, we see Jesus entrust Peter and his heirs with the stewardship of the kingdom here on earth, creating an unbroken line of authority that stretches through the millennia all the way to our current Pope — whoever he is at the time you are reading this.

I don't know if you like the Pope. The same goes for your local bishop and your pastor. If a friend texted you, "What do you think of him?" I have no idea how you would respond.

All I know is this: it doesn't really matter. What really matters is what we would say if a friend texted us the same question about Jesus Christ: "What do you think of him, and why?"

In today's Gospel, Jesus doesn't ask his disciples to take an IQ test. He doesn't try to find out which one is the nicest, the hardest worker, the most humble, or even the holiest.

He asks a very simple question: "Who do you say that I am?"

Peter has the answer.

I am not Catholic because I like the Pope. I am not Catholic because the human representatives of the Church have anything to offer me (they often do, but this is beside the point).

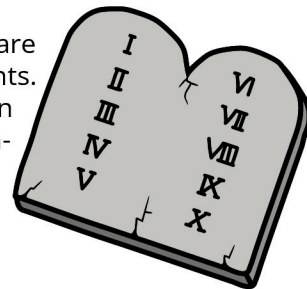

I am Catholic because only Peter has the answer.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Question:

In Sunday school, the students are studying the Ten Commandments. I know that kids are important in the eyes of God, so I'm just wondering why there isn't a commandment about honoring children.

Answer:

Commandments provide EOO-Equal Opportunity for Observance! They are meant for everyone, children as well as adults. There are several assumptions that would make such a commandment a bit redundant. One, children are entrusted to the care of their parents. So, respect, love, and care — as well as teaching them — are assumed to be part of the responsibility of parents. They are the first teachers in the ways of faith and, as such, participate in God's work of loving and creating. The child has the obligation and responsibility towards their parents. Only when they are adults will they make decisions on their own.

In Biblical times, and in many societies today, children are responsible for caring for elderly parents, providing for their needs. In our culture today, too often kids have more rights than responsibilities, and oftentimes long before they are able to handle them. If we follow the Commandment of Jesus to love others and treat them as we would want to be treated, everyone is included, children too.

"The adoration of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament is the end of the Church Militant, just as adoration of God in His glory is the end of the Church Triumphant. A holy rivalry, a concert of prayer, a harmony of divine service should exist between the heavenly court and the Eucharistic court here below, between the adorer and his mother the Church."
