From Fr. Glen's DESK

This is the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In our Gospel reading Jesus comments on how gross and hardened the hearts of His people are toward Him. This is a strong message we must take to heart. The Lord knows that we can fear feeling like we need to change something in our lives. Listening to Jesus can stir the heart to recognize something that we have overlooked or refused to be willing to change or abandon.

In our first reading the Lord says that His word will bear fruit in us. We can determine how much fruit His word can bear in us. Our nation has been consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by our bishops just last month. The image of the Sacred Heart that Jesus inspired St. Margaret Mary to have commissioned shows His heart on top of His clothes. This is a reminder that as we are made in His image, and we have feelings, so too does the Lord have feelings for us. This image is a call from Jesus to return to a strong and determined love for Him.

As we see the lush green around us during summer, try to let that lushness in creation urge us on to bearing fruit in the Lord's eyes through loving Jesus and allowing Him to move us to removing that which is not of Him within us.

Change in Funeral Policy:

Over the years our parish has picked up most of the cost of funeral luncheons for parishioners in addition to providing a space and a crew of volunteers to serve and clean up the luncheon following funerals.

Though we have had funeral luncheon envelopes in our envelope packets, the parish has consistently lost several thousand dollars a year on luncheon subsidies. We have checked area parishes to see how they handle funeral luncheons. We found that none of them pays for meals, which clarifies that our current practice is not typical.

Parish leadership has been evaluating this issue for the past year and has determined that a change is needed. Given all the maintenance and restoration projects we have undertaken, and more that remain to be done, the parish will no longer subsidize the cost of funeral luncheons. We do this with care and gratitude for your understanding.

We will continue to provide our dining room and gym space for luncheons and volunteers to serve the luncheons. We will also continue to provide place settings, paperware, coffee, juice and water as we do now. The change is that now the catering bill will be paid by the family rather than the parish. This change brings us in line with what most parishes have felt the need to do in recent years.

NOTICE ON "JULY" OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

Cathedral will not be sending monthly envelopes for July in order to catch up on production for its 3,000-plus customers. We are sorry for the inconvenience, but please use a previous month's envelope you still have available and write the correct date on it; or on an envelope you are using, please list your name, indicate it is for your Sunday offering, and include your envelope number. THANK YOU!

THANK YOU!

Thank you for your generous support in last week's Peter's Pence Collection! As a parish, we collected $1,773.00. Our contributions join those from our brothers and sisters worldwide to help Pope Leo XIV in his ministry to the Universal Church, including relief to people in need and support for the Holy See. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give. Visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

COFFEE & ROLLS

All are invited to the Parish Center Dining Hall for coffee, juice and rolls following the 9 AM Mass.

"ACCESS FOR ALL" | UPDATE

Today they finished sheathing the side walls up, and started setting the roof trusses. The electric has been roughed-in into the basement area and the HVAC has also been started. Once the roof has been installed, they can start framing the elevator's shaft walls.

Thank You to everyone who have been so generous with your donations. We are over ½ way of our goal of $1,000,000.00 and need a big push to reach our goal. If weather cooperates, we may be into our new elevator space by the end of September.

Thank You!
Gary

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Sometimes I feel capable of absorbing almost anything except God's Word. My mind soaks up song lyrics, sports trivia, and endless online content. But what was the reading at Mass this morning? I struggle to recall. That realization discourages me, and it leads to an uncomfortable question. What is my heart really for? Is it shaped for constant information and distraction, or is it truly designed for God? Am I capable of deeply receiving His Word?

Jesus speaks directly to this today with a simple image. "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it." By comparing the Word of the Kingdom to a seed, Jesus reveals something hopeful about us. The human heart is made for that seed. Soil and seed belong together. No matter how compacted, rocky, or overgrown the ground has become, the Sower never stops sowing.

God loves our hearts. He sees them as a farmer sees his fields, full of potential. Human hearts can indeed "understand the Word." Understanding does not mean mastering information. It means letting the Word sink in, interacting with it, and giving it a home. It means trusting that, beneath the surface, God is at work in quiet and hidden ways.

When we allow the Holy Spirit to loosen the soil of our hearts through prayer, repentance, and simplicity, the same Word that created the universe begins to bear fruit in us, 30, 60, even a hundredfold.

Lord Jesus, Sower of life, soften the soil of my heart. Let Your Word take root in me again, and bring forth the fruit You desire. Amen.

— Father John Muir

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS...

The Gardener and the Soil

I began writing this piece by googling "how do you make soil fertile?" which should tell you everything you need to know about my own abilities as a gardener.

I remember seeing a packet of seeds in the store one summer as a child and convincing my mother to buy them. They were delphiniums, which bloom into a beautiful cone shape if you know what you're doing. Alas, I didn't. I chose for my garden a particularly dry spot of earth right next to my backyard playset, scattered the seeds, congratulated myself, and went on my merry way. I returned occasionally to water the area, but only when I remembered to.

Nothing grew, not even a little sprout. I was more than heartbroken — my faith was shaken. I had planted these seeds! I had watered them! (A little.) There was sunlight! All my childhood books and rhymes said this was all you needed. Was it all a lie?

Of course it wasn't a lie. Seeds need soil, sunlight, water, and oxygen — good soil, adequate sunlight for whatever the plant is, and consistent water.

So what seeds need more than anything is a gardener. (At least, delphiniums do.)

When I hear the parable of the rich soil and the rocky ground in the Gospel of Matthew, I often miss the point. I think Jesus is trying to give me a message about how I should be. "Be better." That's what I think He's telling me.

I forget that I am only the soil. I cannot enrich myself; all my efforts to do so will come to nothing. What He is telling me is to ask the gardener: "Make me what I need to be."

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

2026 MCCL PRIMARY ELECTION
VOTER'S GUIDE
Now available!

Minnesota's critical primary election is on Tuesday, August 11th. Early voting begins June 26—and MCCL's Primary Election Voter's Guide is now available online!

Why does the primary election matter? Because what happens in the November general election is contingent (to a large degree) on what happens in the primary election this summer. That's when we decide who will represent each party on the ballot.

Will those candidates be strongly pro-life? Can they win over voters in tight general election races against well-funded pro-abortion opponents? Will we see a pro-life legislature elected in November—one that will stop abortion extremism in Minnesota and begin restoring protections for the vulnerable?

All of this depends on the candidates we choose in the primary election!

You can find our voter's guide and other election information right now by going to mccl.org/election.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the repose of the soul of JoAnn Warren, a past parishioner of Ss. Peter & Paul. JoAnn and her husband, Dick, and children – Cathie, Rich, Jeff, & Steve, were parishioners of Ss. Peter & Paul from 1977 to 1986, and were very active in the parish.

JoAnn's funeral will be held here at Ss. Peter & Paul on Saturday, July 18th, followed by burial at Ss. Peter & Paul Cemetery and a luncheon in the Parish Center. The family requests any memorials go to Ss. Peter & Paul Church or to a favorite charity.

We express our deepest sympathy to JoAnn's family and friends, and pray that the love of God will provide them with comfort. May JoAnn rest in the eternal peace of Christ and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

*"How many of you say:
I should like to see His face, His garments, His shoes. You do see Him, you eat Him. He gives Himself to you,
not only that you may see Him, but also to be your food and nourishment."*

~ St. John Chrysostom
