This Sunday is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. We begin this sacred week at all Masses with the gospel reading of the Lord's entry into Jerusalem and the blessing of palms. We will read the passion from St. Matthew's gospel. These sacred days are the most holy days of the Christian year.

From
Fr. Glen's
DESK

On Holy Thursday there will be the Chrism Mass at the cathedral where the archbishop will bless the holy oils that will be used to baptize, confirm and anoint people throughout the year; and in the evening will be the Mass of the Lord's Supper, which commemorates the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. On Good Friday we will hear the passion from St. John's gospel to remind us of the intensity of the passion of Jesus for us. The great Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night begins the celebration of the Lord's resurrection. This is the grandest and most holy Mass of the year. I encourage you to attend it if at all possible.

Easter Sunday concludes this sacred week. The three great days, the Triduum, lead and build up to the incredible celebration of Jesus' resurrection. Easter Sunday only reveals the fullness of its power for us when we have walked with Jesus through the Triduum days. All these sacred holy days to interrupt your schedule as much as possible with accompanying fasting, abstinence and prayer.

- Please note the schedule for confessions, beginning on Palm Sunday and at various times during Holy Week, are found in the bulletin.
- And, on a positive note, we have good news that we have secured a successor to Julianne, our Director of Religious Education (DRE) and Youth Minister. Claire Lenz, who currently runs our Confirmation program, will be stepping up as DRE. The kids enjoy her very much and we look forward to working with her in our religious education program. We are creating a Youth Ministry position to focus on our middle and high school students.

MEET OUR NEW "DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION"

Hi, my name is Claire Lenz, and I'm grateful for the opportunity to step into the role of Director of Religious Education (DRE) after this school year. I've been a volunteer at St. Thomas the Apostle/Ss. Peter & Paul for the past four years, and for the last two, I've found a true home in the Confirmation program. Walking with our young people in their faith has been a joy, and I look forward to building on Julianne's wonderful work as I continue serving in this ministry.

COFFEE & ROLLS

All are invited to the Parish Center Dining Hall for coffee, juice and rolls following the 9 AM Mass.

BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

Bulletin articles are due by 9:00 AM on Mondays, unless indicated elsewhere in the bulletin. All articles must be completely written before submitting.

THE "FOURTH" CUP

Excerpts taken from "Did Jesus Drink the Fourth Cup?" <https://www.sfcatholic.org/bishopbulletin/did-jesus-drink-the-fourth-cup/>

Question:

How is the "fourth cup" related to our salvation?

Answer:

To answer this question, we are going to focus on the relationship between the Last Supper and the Paschal Mystery: Jesus' Passion, Death, Resurrection and Ascension.

The Passover meal, as practiced by the Jewish people in Jesus' time, was structured around the drinking of four cups of wine [representing four expressions of redemption in describing the Exodus from Egypt:

1) "I will take you out..."; 2) "I will save you..."; 3) "I will redeem you..."; 4) "I will take you as a nation..."]. Now let's turn to the Last Supper, particularly as we read it in Luke's account. It's worth taking a moment to read the text directly:

"When the hour came, He took His place at table with the apostles. He said to them, 'I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for, I tell you, I shall not eat it [again] until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God.' Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and said, 'Take this and share it among yourselves; for I tell you [that] from this time on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.' Then He took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, 'This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me.' And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which will be shed for you'" (Lk 22:14-20).

Luke says that "He took a cup," and later "likewise the cup after supper." This "cup after supper," the cup of His blood, was the third cup, the cup that was drunk after the meal. In fact, Paul refers to the cup of Jesus' blood explicitly as the cup of blessing, the term for the third cup.

But look at what happens next, as we see in Matthew's account: "Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, 'Drink from it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, from now on I shall not drink this fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it with you new in the kingdom of my Father.' Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives" (Mt 26:27-30).

After Jesus drinks the third cup, He says He will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom comes. So, in essence, Jesus did not actually complete the Passover meal. Instead, He goes to the Garden of Gethsemane and prays three times to the Father that "this cup" might pass from Him (Mt 26:36-46). What cup is He referring to? The fourth cup of the Passover meal, the final cup that concludes the meal, the one from which He did not drink.

But Jesus would drink the fourth cup: on the cross. Let's look at John's account: "After this, aware that everything was now finished, in order that the scripture might be fulfilled, Jesus said, 'I thirst.' There was a vessel filled with common wine. So they put a sponge soaked in wine on a sprig of hyssop and put it up to his mouth. [Note, a hyssop branch is what was used to spread the blood of the lamb onto the doorposts of the Israelites on the evening of the Passover]. When Jesus had taken the wine, He said, 'It is finished.' And bowing His head, He handed over the spirit" (Jn 19:28-30).

Note: When Jesus had received the wine, He said, "It is finished." What is finished? The Last Supper. By not drinking the fourth cup until He was literally about to die, Jesus included His passion and death in the Last Supper, seeing His death as the Passover sacrifice and uniting the Last Supper to His death. Thus, by delaying the fourth cup until the cross, the cross became a Passover and the Last Supper became a sacrifice. In effect, it is the Last Supper that makes Calvary a sacrifice: both events are the same single sacrifice.

Thus, it is at the Last Supper and at its liturgical renewal in every Mass that Jesus' sacrificial death and Resurrection become present, and we are able to receive Him, the living God made flesh and present to us in the Eucharist.

But Jesus would drink
the fourth cup...
on the cross.

The Passover meal, as practiced by the Jewish people in Jesus' time, was structured around the drinking of four cups of wine.

HOW DO YOU PRAY THE EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

The Eucharistic Adoration is a prayer (it normally lasts an hour, called Holy Hour) that is made before the Blessed Sacrament.

Steps to pray:

3. ASK
Present Him all your intentions and the intentions of those around you.

4. MEDITATE
In a moment of silence, try to listen to the voice of God.

5. ASK FOR FORGIVENESS
Express your sorrow for the world's sins and your own.

1. REALIZE WHO IS PRESENT
Place yourself in the presence of Christ.

2. GIVE THANKS
Be thankful for this moment of prayer and for all the blessings the Lord has given you.

How to pray? 10 ways of praying

"...not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these; but ... as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic prayer set down by Him, and by the change of which our blood and flesh is nourished, is both the Flesh and Blood of that incarnated Jesus."

*St. Justin Martyr, AD 150
First Apology 66, 20.*
