NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 10, 2025

How does the Church know that Mary was assumed into heaven?

(Page 4)

*"Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the
hour when the thief
was coming, he would not have let his house
be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."*

From Fr. Glen's DESK

This is the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our readings for this Sunday praise the faith of our ancestors and call us to be strong and ready in faith for the Master's return. Jesus also tells us to be ready for His return in the parables of the bridegroom's delayed return and of the servants awaiting their master's return.

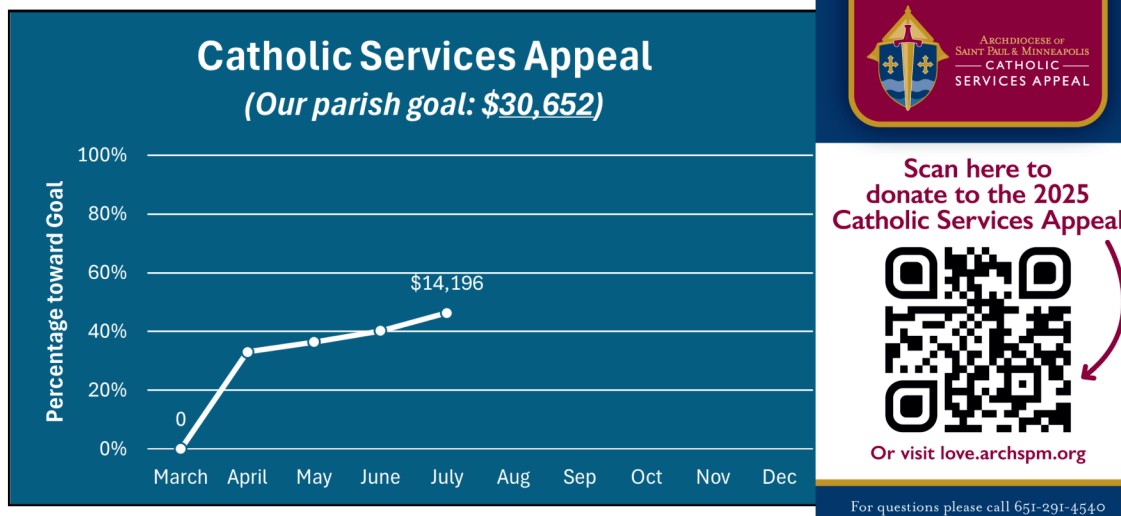

In both cases, Jesus uses the example of an awaited one being long in coming back. This makes it clear that, though early Christians like St. Paul expected Jesus to return very shortly, this would not be the case. Each generation is given the challenge to remain alive and active in faith until His return. Currently, as a community of believers, we are not doing so well at remaining awake and waiting for Him.

This is a wake-up call for us to shake off the half-heartedness and indifference that has dulled the life of the Church in recent decades. The causes of this are many, as our social culture is quite toxic to faith and religion. This does not excuse us from making our best effort to stir our faith anew and to try to help others to do so!

As summer draws to its close, in whatever bits of time that you have to spare, ask these questions during a time of prayer: Lord, is my faith as strong as you want it to be? How can I help others to come to a strong faith? If we are baptized, we are God's children by adoption. Any parent is deeply wounded by their kids' rejection. God is also deeply wounded by being rejected by so many of His own adopted kids. The devotion to the Sacred Heart is focused on this point particularly and offers condolence to His wounded heart that aches as so many of His adopted kids reject Him. Eucharistic adoration is another way to offer condolences to the wounded heart of Jesus on behalf of the many who ignore or reject Him. It also deepens our own faith greatly. Have you ever invited someone who doesn't adore to come along with you to the adoration chapel? May Our Lady help us to make sweet condolences to the heart of her crucified Son.

St. Thomas's Turkey dinner festival is coming up next Sunday, August 17th, following 10:30 Mass until 4:00PM. Mark your calendar and come to engage in a moment of sweet Catholic culture! (By the way, the turkey and dressing are on a whole other plane of goodness! I needn't mention the refrigerator pickles as I have carried on about their exquisite wonderfulness before.)

SUPPORTING PARISH & COMMUNITY

Hello Brothers and Sisters in the Lord –

In this new fiscal year for the parish, we plan to keep the momentum going and build on the accomplishments of last year. We are working on a plan to significantly improve access to the church for parishioners and guests, and to install bathrooms in the church basement. Keep an eye out for more details. Also, the parish will be more visible in the community through a larger presence at the Loretto Fun Fest on September 13th, and we anticipate another excellent Christkindlmarkt day on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. Our youth have many excellent faith-building activities planned, and Deacon Tom Utecht will again lead a fantastic program for all seeking to deepen their relationship with the Lord - for Catholics and non-Catholics. Finally, I encourage you to contact me with comments on how our parish can become an even more amazing parish.

Thank you for supporting the Saints Peter and Paul community, and I look forward to seeing you soon!

God bless, Todd

WATER & SODA NEEDED

The Parish office is collecting water and soda donations (especially diet soda) for Christkindlmarkt. All donations can be left in the Parish Center kitchen. With Labor Day just around the corner, many sales will begin to advertise, and it would be a great time to take advantage of these sales, which will, in turn, benefit our Christkindlmarkt festival.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Volunteers Needed!

Join us in spreading joy at this year's Loretto Funfest on Saturday, September 13th. In the past, we have hosted a booth, and our Knights of Columbus have been in charge of the Bingo stand. This year we have been invited to also host and supervise several inflatables and carnival games, along with our booth and Bingo. Father Glen is very excited about having this opportunity for Ss. Peter & Paul to increase our spiritual and social imprint in our community.

We are looking for enthusiastic volunteers to help set up and/or work at our booth, and supervise the games and inflatables. Set up begins at 2 PM, and the festival hours are from 3-7 PM.

Whether you can spare an hour or a full afternoon, your time will make a difference. Please contact Joyce at jrathburn@saintsppta.org or (763) 496-5142 for more details. Let's shine God's love together!

ASSUMPTION

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

AUGUST - MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in the Catholic Church. This devotion encourages reflection on Mary's virtues, love, and her role as the Mother of God.

- Marian Feasts: August features several significant Marian feast days - the Dedication of the Basilica of St. Mary Major on August 5th, the Assumption of Mary on August 15th, and the Queenship of Mary on August 22nd.
- Assumption of Mary: This feast commemorates the belief that Mary was taken body and soul into heaven, highlighting her unique place in the Church and her role as the Mother of God.
- Traditional Devotion: The dedication of August to the Immaculate Heart of Mary is a tradition rooted in popular piety and devotion, where each month is linked to a particular saint or sacred event. This tradition began in the 16th century, according to Catholic Culture.
- Historical Context: The devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary gained prominence, particularly after World War II, with Pope Pius XII's emphasis on the message of Fatima and his dedication to Our Lady.
- Practices: Catholics often commemorate these Marian feasts through various acts of devotion, such as attending Mass, praying the rosary, making a holy hour, or engaging in other prayers and reflections dedicated to Mary.

HISTORICAL EVIDENCE FOR THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR HOLY MOTHER

Archaeology

Archaeology has revealed two tombs of Mary, one in Jerusalem and one in Ephesus. The fact that Mary lived in both places explains the two tombs. But what cannot be explained, except for the Assumption, is the fact that there is no body in either tomb.

Relics

There are no relics. Early Church history shows that Christian belief in the communion of saints and the sanctity of the body led early Christians to seek out with the greatest fervor relics from the bodies of great saints. Cities, and, later, religious orders, would fight over the bones of great saints.

This is one reason why we have relics of the apostles and so many of the greatest saints and martyrs in history. We even have the bones of Mary's mother, Anne. Yet never was there a single relic of Mary's body? As revered as Mary was, this would be very strange, except for the fact of the assumption of her body.

Manuscripts

Whole families of manuscripts from different areas of the world in the sixth century told similar stories of Mary's Assumption, which meant there had to be previous manuscripts from which everyone received their data. As research progressed, earlier manuscripts were found. The most recent - Syriac fragments of stories about the Assumption of Mary have been dated as early as the third century.

It must be remembered that when we are talking about these manuscripts, we are not only talking about ancient manuscripts and fragments of manuscripts, but we are talking also about different "families" of manuscripts written in nine languages. They all agree on Mary's Assumption and they presuppose that the story was already widely known.

We might ask why the earliest Church Fathers did not write about the Assumption. Because the Gnostics, who were some of the main enemies of the Faith in the early centuries of the Christian era, agreed with the Church on the matter, there was no need to defend the teaching. In other words, there is no record of anyone disagreeing on the matter. Just as we don't find works from the earliest Fathers on Jesus' celibacy either was most likely due to the universal agreement on the topic. Much of early Christian literature was on defending problem areas in the Church that needed to be addressed.

There has been disagreement as to whether Mary was taken up alive or after having died; but whether or not she was assumed was not a question. To this day, the Church has not decided definitively on whether Mary died or not.

Dead Theologian Society

A Catholic apostolate for high school teens

Through the Saints of yesterday, the Dead Theologians Society (DTS) inspires the youth of today to become the saints of tomorrow. Its motto, "Mortuum Mundo - Vivum in Christo," is Latin for "Dead to the World - Alive in Christ," and is inspired by Romans 6:11, where St. Paul tells us to be dead to sin but alive in Christ Jesus.

We, the Church Militant, learn about and ask for the intercession of the great Saints (the Church Triumphant) while praying for the Souls in Purgatory (the Church Suffering).

Participants learn about the lives of the saints (who are only dead by the world's definition and are certainly alive with Jesus in Heaven.) Their lives of heroic virtue continue to inspire. Through the examples of the Saints, young people are catechized and develop positive role models at a time when they are truly needed.

— Jesus (Mt 11:28-30)

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

House Blessing, Explained!

Catholics who move to a new place of residence often wish to have their dwelling blessed, to call the favor and help of God upon all those who live in the house and all those who will enter it.

The Roman Ritual (Book of Blessings) provides two formats for house blessings: one during the Easter or Christmas season (specifically for the Epiphany) and one for Ordinary Time. Those who live in the home must be present for a house to be blessed. A priest, deacon or lay person can administer the blessing, although if a lay person does so they must use the rites accorded to lay ministers in the Roman Ritual.

A house blessing includes Scripture readings, intercessions and a prayer of blessing.
