From
Fr. Glen's
DESK

This is the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In our readings there is a call for a wholehearted response to Jesus Christ which will bring blessings from the Lord. Often, we may feel that we have things we are supposed to do and not do to follow the Lord. We may not be conscious of the blessings of the Lord that come to those who do follow Him wholeheartedly.

God will certainly not fail to bless those who follow Him without reservation. As He weighs in the gospel that even giving a cup of water to one who follows the Lord will not go unrewarded.

Let us try to look for the many blessings coming from the Lord each day. Doing so and thanking Him for them when we notice them, will bring a reward from Him. God will not be outmatched in blessing us.

- This is our Patronal Feast this week as we celebrate and honor our two great patron saints, Peter and Paul. These two men are the main foundation stones in the church's foundation. We are blessed to have our parish church dedicated in their honor. The 4th Degree Knights of Columbus honor guard will be at 9am Mass to lend dignity to that liturgy. There will be a celebratory brunch to follow in the social hall and the parish summer drawing. Be sure to come!
- This coming week on Friday, July 3rd we will celebrate St. Thomas' Patronal Feast Day at the 8:30AM mass with refreshments to follow in the social hall. The next day, Saturday, July 4th, we will celebrate our nation's 250th anniversary at the 8:30AM Mass. An action-packed weekend at St. Thomas!

Be sure to join us in the Parish Center for the

"ACCESS FOR ALL CHALLENGE" UPDATE

This week Patriot Erectors installed the metal decking for the top landing. This will be filled in with concrete after the 4th of July. The contractors are working on framing up the sides and will soon begin the elevator shaft walls. Thank You for all of your donations and prayers during our construction, both are greatly appreciated.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including the charitable works of Pope Leo XIV. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression and disasters. Be a sign of hope with your generosity. For more information, visit www.oblodisanpietro.va/en.html.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Not to Lose, BUT TO FIND

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I still remember the first homily I ever preached as a new deacon. It was at the seminary, and the Gospel was this one: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me." (Matthew 10:37-38) Standing before more than 200 classmates and professors, I stumbled awkwardly through my words and realized how strange — almost insane — this teaching sounded. If anyone else said it, we would call it narcissistic or cultish.

And that is the point. I felt the weight of those words in my own heart then, as I still do today. Am I willing to live as though Christ's claim on my love is absolute? Are you?

Over the years, I've learned that the more I do, the more everything else makes sense. Family, friendships, vocation, even my very self: all of it falls into place when my love for Jesus comes first.

That is why he dares to speak this way. Our Lord is not a cult leader hungry for control. He is the Son of God, the source of life and love itself. To put him before everything else is not to lose, but to find... everything, and everyone, in him.

This week, name one thing or one person you are tempted to place before the Lord. Then consciously offer it back to him in prayer.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS BY COLLEEN JURKIEWICZ DORMAN

It's easy to receive Jesus, or at least the Jesus presented to us by pop culture. But it's harder to receive God the Son, consubstantial with God the Father who sent him — the one from the Old Testament who says and does a bunch of things that make modern people uncomfortable.

Receiving

I receive a lot of junk mail. I'm on a bunch of people's asking-for-money lists, and so were the people who owned this house before me, and when you put it all together, it results in quite the pile of paper accumulating on my counter.

I leave it there because, while I have received this mail, I don't want to receive it. Do you see the difference? To really receive someone or something, you have to look at it, assess it, make space for it. Accept it. Decide it will have a place in your home or your life or whatever, and give it that place.

It's what the righteous woman did with Elisha. She received him. She had a room all ready, waiting for him, even when he wasn't there.

But I refuse to receive the junk mail. I don't have space for it, in my head or on my counter, so after a day or two, I just throw it away without looking through it.

"Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me," Jesus tells us in the Gospel of Matthew.

But what does that mean, exactly?

It's easy to receive Jesus, or at least to receive the Jesus presented to us by modern imagination — that laidback hippie who lets anyone sit at his table, no questions asked. But it's harder to receive the Christ, God the Son, who is consubstantial with God the Father who sent him.

Ah, yes, God the Father — maybe you've heard of Him? He's the one from the Old Testament who says and does a bunch of things that make modern people uncomfortable.

That's a little more of a challenge, isn't it? Takes a little bit more thought. A little more assessment. A little more making-space.

Can we do it? Well, we have to find a way. Because for the record, laidback hippie Jesus doesn't exist. And Old Testament God makes a lot of sense, if you give Him a little thought. If you make a little space.

So make the space. Receive.

Prayer of Thanksgiving for Freedom

Freedom is enshrined in our US Constitution. The First Amendment of our constitution protects our freedom of speech. However, our speech may not infringe upon another's freedom. Freedom does have its limits. And we must protect everyone's freedoms, not just ours. On this 4th of July, let us remember from whom all our freedoms originate, our good and gracious God.

Let us pray...

God, giver of all good gifts,
Help us to be thankful for rest and food,
and remember that, in all we do or say,
you are with us, here this day.
We are thankful for all you do
and for everything you have given us.
But above all we are thankful for our freedoms
and the ability to protect others' freedom.

We are free because of you.
We ask for your continued blessing on all your creation.
Through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
